

Cranes and Conversations

New work by artists Jill Metcoff and Diane Farris
October 17, 2008 through January 18, 2009

Opening Reception: Friday, October 17, 5 to 7 p.m.

Please RSVP to Rebecca Silber at 773-755-5117 or rsilber@naturemuseum.org. Bring this flyer for free Museum admission on day of reception.

Jill Metcoff and Diane Farris dwell at the opposite ends of a sandhill crane migration route in Wisconsin and Florida. The collaboration began in 2003 with photographic migrations, visiting and studying the connections between home and away for both the cranes and photographers.

Pictured above: The Guardian Crane by Diane Farris; Collision (detail) by Jill Metcoff

THE PEGGY NOTEBAERT
NATURE MUSEUM

The Museum of the Chicago Academy of Sciences

2430 North Cannon Drive, Chicago
Just off Lake Shore Drive at Fullerton
773-755-5100 | naturemuseum.org